

ESTABLISHED 1886
THE HOMER FITTS CO.
THE STORE WHERE QUALITY COUNTS

The Economy of "Dove" Undergarments

"DOVE" styles are attractive—so attractive that they immediately please the eye.

Their reasonable prices and long-wearing qualities—careful workmanship and fine, yet durable materials—make "Dove" Undergarments a real economy. In our lingerie department you will find complete assortments of

DOVE Undergarments
Beautiful Well-made Lingerie

NIGHT GOWNS, UNDERSKIRTS, CORSET COVERS, CAMISOLES, BLOOMERS, CHEMISES, NOVELTIES

50c up to $4.50

Tire Service

Tire changes become simple on this modern machine. We make a specialty of this work and are prepared to perform every operation speedily and efficiently.

Road Service

We deliver Tires, Tubes, Gas, Oil, etc., anywhere free of charge. Call us in any emergency.

Lane-Davis Co.

Vulcanizing—Accessories

RICHARD HUDNUT
THREE FLOWERS TWIN COMPACT
(Sold Individually)

The Latest Creation of Richard Hudnut
Containing
POWDER IN FIVE TIMES
QUANTITY OF ROUGE
Smart Freshening-up Packet for Hand Bag
Sparkling Ornament to the Dressing Table
(Refill may be obtained)

(Twin Compact (Rouge side open))
(Twin Compact (Powder side open))
(Twin Compact (closed))

Drown's Drug Store

A Storm Coat That Can be Worn for a Top Coat

We are showing a complete line of the above Coats. $5.00 to $25.00.

Also Boys' Raincoats. $4.00 to $10.00.

The Frank McWhorter Co.

BARRE DAILY TIMES
TUESDAY, AUGUST 8, 1922.

The Weather

Fair to-night and Wednesday; cooler in extreme southern portion; moderate southwest winds.

TALK OF THE TOWN

Wells concert at M. E. church to-morrow night.—adv.

A son was born August 7 to Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Lambert of 372 North Main street.

Two days more to pay your taxes. Please bring your notice. Come early and avoid the rush.—adv.

Mrs. Flora K. Howe of Barre Town left this morning for Newport, where she will visit relatives for a week.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Sitzer of Buffalo, N. Y., are visiting Mrs. Sitzer's brother, H. A. Phelps, for two weeks.

Walter Clark of Portsmouth, N. H., is spending two weeks at the home of his uncle, John Howell, of Church street.

Miss Evelyn Phelps of Greenville, S. C., is visiting for two weeks at the home of her father, H. A. Phelps, of Academy street.

Mrs. Angus Douglass of Averill street returned yesterday from Stowe, where she has been visiting relatives for the past week.

Having taken over Letourneau's lunch room on North Main street, am now prepared to serve all patrons and friends, day or night. John Gallery.—adv.

Eternal vigilance is the price of beautiful, luxuriant hair. Parisian Sage prevents it from looking dull and lifeless and banishes every trace of dandruff. Guaranteed by E. A. Drown & Co.—adv.

Miss Evelyn Drew, who is employed in Burlington, is visiting for a few days at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Drew of Maple Grove street. Miss Katherine Sears of Taunton, Mass., is also a visitor at the Drew home.

Mr. and Mrs. William Hunter of New York, who have been visiting Mr. Hunter's mother, Mrs. Mary Hunter of Prospect avenue, left this morning for Springfield, where they will visit relatives for a few days before returning home.

The swimming pool dam at the Phelps mill went out last evening after it had held back the heavier flow of water caused by the rain storm for some time. Workmen were busy repairing it again this morning in such a way that it is doubtful if the next storm can tear it down.

Joseph Trudelle of Webster, who was arrested Sunday in company with Stanley Nutbrown in a car near Dodge's bridge, was brought into court yesterday afternoon on a charge of operating a car while under the influence of intoxicating liquor. He pleaded guilty to the charge before Judge Scott in city court and was released upon payment of a fine of $100 and costs of $12.40.

During the electrical storm of Sunday night, lightning did queer stunts at the residence of Charles Mills in Orange but did not set fire to the building. Entering the house by way of the chimney, the lightning smashed windows, tore wall paper off the wall and ripped down curtains in its course.

The recent rains have made the Orange highway so bad at a point near the state highway construction that Miss Flood, the West Topham stage driver, had to detour his motor conveyance this morning by way of East Orange and Washington.

TOO LATE TO CLASSIFY

LOST—Small chestnut colored hound; finder please notify S. Fessenden, 617 N. Main street, Tel. 109-12. 12343

WANTED—By a young lady with two years' practical office experience, a position to work half time; some knowledge of drawing; address "H." Times office. 12341

TO RENT—Furnished or unfurnished 5 or 6 room tenement, with sleeping porch and garage; modern conveniences; address "Tenement," care Times office. 12342

CHEVROLET TOURING CAR FOR SALE—1921 model, run less than 1000 miles; cheap if taken at once; terms if desired; address "Chevrolet," care of Times office. 12342

FOR SALE—100 bu. early potatoes, wholesale or retail; Tel. 386-23. 12343

WANTED—A few apprentice granite cutters; Barclay Bros. 12341

To Whom It May Concern

We wish to state that the Pink Granite Company of Milford, a subsidiary company of the Fuller Construction Company of New York, has signed agreements with the Granite Cutters, Quarry Workers and Engineers. The Milford Pink-Victoria White Granite Company has signed no agreement with the above organizations, and are still running under the so-called "American" plan.

General Committee:
Granite Cutters,
Quarry Workers,
Engineers.

If better bread could be made, we'd bake it.

TALK OF THE TOWN

Miss Amelia Solari of Boston arrived in the city Monday and is visiting her mother, Mrs. Mary Solari, of North Main street.

MANY ACCIDENT REPORTS.

Submitted to the Vermont Secretary of State.

W. F. Lange of Bellows Falls has reported to the secretary of state that while driving Mrs. Parma A. Lange's car on Aug. 5 he went over a two-foot embankment near Bellows Falls. He was cut on one ankle by glass from the broken windshield.

A. B. Hawkins of South Shaftesbury reports that a car with the registration 16905 ran into and damaged, badly, his new Essex car as he was starting on a trip.

D. W. Cooley of Waterbury reports $25 damage to his car and $100 to a car driven by G. Gattoni of Waterbury in a collision at Waterbury Aug. 6.

Eliot E. Ellis of Brookfield reports a collision between his Ford and an older Ford with the registration 31942 between East Brookfield and North Randolph on Aug. 6.

F. R. Churchill, county agent for Addison county, reports that a mail clerk driving a team attempted to pass his car, which was stopped in a ditch, when the horse ran away, tipping the team over.

Mrs. Madine Sanborn of Chelsea reports a collision of her car with another belonging to H. P. Hinman of Barre, driven by his sister, July 30, in Barre. Damage was $18 to the Sanborn car and $10 to the other.

R. H. Brown of Barre reports brushing with another car Aug. 3 in Barre. M. M. Regan of St. Albans reports that his car struck six-year-old Evelyn Sweeney in St. Albans, when the girl ran out from behind another car. She was cut and bruised.

Abraham Fine of Burlington reports that his truck struck a wagon on the South Burlington road Aug. 6 when the horse became frightened. W. I. Cromie of Charlotte reports running over a black and white bull dog on the Shelburne road south of Burlington, near Clymer street. A. A. Webster of West Glover reports that on Aug. 6 his car was in collision with another driven by Thomas Smith of Orleans, the latter running into a bank. Daniel Nichol of Proctor reports that a car with the number 30331 ran into his car in Center Rutland. A Croce of Barre skidded into a trolley car in a heavy downpour last Sunday night on North Main street in Barre, he reports.

W. M. Holden of the Trow & Holden firm of Barre has reported that his car was run into in Smugglers' Notch Aug. 7 by a car with the registration 11165, which he states was traveling too fast for the narrow road. Fred Nystrom of Newfane reports that he met a car driven by D. Finno between Brattleboro and Dummerston and that the car was zigzagging. He stopped, but Finno ran into him. Alfredo Franchesi of Rutland states that at Tomple's crossing in Rutland he ran into a boy, who was one of two talking to people in a car standing in the road. The boy stepped directly in front of his car, he states. They boy, who was not seriously injured, was taken to his home.

MEET STATE BOARD.

In Effort to Settle Lawrence Textile Strike.

Boston, Mass., Aug. 8.—Representatives of the United Textile Workers of America in Lawrence and the state board of conciliation and arbitration conferred here to-day in an effort to discover a means of settling the Lawrence textile strike. No representative of the One Big Union was present. The conference was called at the request of the United Textile Workers as the result of a statement issued recently by the board to the effect that the offer of the Pacific mills to run at full time, with the twenty per cent wage cut in effect pending arbitration in October, was as good as could be expected at this time.

ATLANTIC FLEET ARRIVE.

Will Stay at Newport Harbor for Two Weeks Manoeuvres.

Newport, R. I., Aug. 8.—The Atlantic fleet arrived here to-day to spend the next two weeks in this harbor and in Narragansett bay.

MONTPELIER

Verneta M. Pine and Dr. S. Thomas Law United in Marriage.

The marriage of Verneta Mignon Pine, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Pine of 122 Elm street, to Dr. S. Thomas Law took place in the Methodist Episcopal church at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon. Rev. A. H. Webb performing the ceremony. The church was prettily decorated with ferns and wild flowers, with goldenrod predominating. The decoration was in charge of the Comandante club, of which the bride is president.

The bridal party advanced up the aisle to the strains of the wedding march from Lohengrin, played on the church organ by Mrs. W. O. Comstock. The bridesmaid was Miss Alice Pine, sister of the bride, and the ushers were Miss Hazel Pratt and Miss Miriam Staples. The bride was given in marriage by her father, Newell H. Curtis was the best man. During the ceremony, "Oh, Promise Me," was played and the recessional was the Mendelssohn wedding march. The single ring service was used.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents for the wedding party and friends, and refreshments were served. The dining room, which was in charge of Mrs. M. E. James and Mrs. H. Curtis of Williston, was decorated in pink and white carried out with sweet peas. The living room was decorated in yellow and white, sweet peas being used here also. The refreshments were served by members of the Comandante club and the bride's sisters. The day was a double celebration, being the bride's birthday.

Following the reception, Dr. and Mrs. Law left on a wedding trip. On their return they will reside for a time at the home of the bride's parents.

The couple received many beautiful gifts of cut glass, gold, silver, pictures, china, linen, electric appliances, and also a number of telegrams of congratulation.

Among the guest from out of town were Mr. and Mrs. Corliss Matthews of Holyoke, Mass., Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Lackey and son, Kenneth, of Northfield, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Goodrich, daughter, Glenn, and son, Herbert, of Richmond, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Stafford and daughter, Evelyn, of Utica, N. Y., Mr. and Mrs. M. E. James and Mrs. H. Curtis of Williston, Linwood Law of Jeffersonville, N. H., and Earl MacLaren of Milford, Conn., a close friend of the bridegroom.

The bride is a well known and popular young lady in the city. She graduated from Montpelier high school in 1916 and has since been employed in the National Life Insurance company. Dr. Law is a native of Sayreville, P. Q. He has made his home in Montpelier for the past two years and is employed as a veterinarian by the state.

Miss Hazel Weeks leaves to-day on a vacation from her duties in the state library.

Miss Elizabeth Kelly of Northfield was a visitor in the city on Monday. The New England States Limited, due to leave Montpelier at 3:08 p. m., was two hours and 20 minutes late yesterday afternoon, due to trouble with a locomotive on the Boston & Maine.

George A. Reed, state engineer, and Donald L. Lord of the engineering department left yesterday for Springfield on work connected with the department.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Anderson of Barre visited at Woodbury pond on Sunday.

Miss Ellen MacDuffee of the adjunct general's department, has left on a two weeks' vacation, which she will pass in the White mountains.

Miss Phyllis King is on a two weeks' vacation from her duties in the department of charities and probation.

John Koller, and daughter, of Bethel and John Hart and son and daughter of Boston were visitors in the city yesterday.

Judge Sherman R. Moulton arrived in the city yesterday.

Miss Eleanor J. Sutherland of Burlington is a visitor in the city.

Joseph Abair, Mr. and Mrs. George Abair and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Abair have to-day on a three-day motor trip through Grand Isle and New York state.

The funeral of George Robinson of Montpelier Center was held yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock from his late

UNION DRY GOODS CO.

SERVICE—SATISFACTION

IT'S COMING

Begins

Thursday, Aug. 10

Our Big Semi-Annual

Clearance Sale

—Wonderful Savings—

Watch for big advertisement in Wednesday's Times
Read every item. It will pay you.

UNION DRY GOODS CO.

home Rev. C. N. St. John officiating. Burial was in Cutler cemetery.

Miss Loretta Sullivan is able to be out after a severe illness of three weeks.

George H. Parmenter of St. Paul, Minn., who is connected with the public health service in that city, is a visitor in the city.

Frank C. Archibald of Manchester filed at the secretary of state's office this morning petitions for publication on the Republican primary ballot of his name as a candidate for attorney general. The petitions carry about 800 signatures.

A butter scoring will be held on Thursday at the Gold Brook creamery in Stowe. Employees of the state department of agriculture will attend the scoring.

Henry B. Shaw, secretary of civil and military affairs, arrived in the city to-day. Governor Hartness is expected to-morrow for the conference on fuel regulation.

In probate court Margaret Roach has settled her final account as administratrix of the estate of John Roach, late of Montpelier. Ida Lowry has settled her final account as administratrix of the estate of Hattie F. Fletcher, late of Barre Town. John C. Griggs has been appointed administrator of the estate of Sarah D. Jameson, late of Barre City.

A marriage license has been issued to Ralph Patton Campbell of Skidwhegan, Me., and Ethel Mae Chappell of 5 St. Paul street.

John H. Gowdey has returned from a vacation.

W. A. Shannon of St. Albans was in the city yesterday.

Harry Dickens of Orleans arrived in the city yesterday.

The Right of Search.

"Trouble at home!" inquired the sympathetic friend.

"Serious," replied Mr. Meekton. "My wife went through my pockets last night."

"And you are highly indignant?"

"No. She is. She didn't find a thing."—Washington Star.

The Woman's Ready-to-Wear Shop

An Early Showing of

NEW FALL DRESSES

Frocks That Have Simplicity and Style

There are three-piece Suits of Tricotine with the stunning cape effects and others of Poirer Twill in the prettiest and most youthful styles in the lovely Fall shades.

Crepes in the most provocative styles, will feature in afternoon frocks.

The Mrs. Shepard Co., Inc.

MOTORS

Rewound

in our

REPAIR SHOP

are

Good as New

Barre Electric Co.

Tel. 98

"For Your Electric Wants"

Special Prices on Oldfield Cord and Fabric Tires

CORDS		FABRICS
30x3½	$10.50	30x3	$7.50
32x4	20.40	30x3½	8.50
33x4	21.54
32x4½	27.03
35x5	35.32

Perry Automobile Co.

325 North Main Street

Summer Stoves

We offer the Dangler and Perfection Oil Stoves in 2, 3 and 4 burners.

Perfection and Bola Ovens.

Satisfaction to the customer guaranteed.

C. W. Averill & Co.

THE WINCHESTER STORE